Mr./Ms. Secretary,

I strongly feel that it is extremely important to my business to make person-to-person telephone calls to homeowners.

Homeowners who may not have had access to or knowledge of my services must not be denied their right to receive that information over their telephone.

Please count my opposition to Docket No. 92-90, the Telephone consumer Protection Act of 1991.

Sincerely,

Sheryl Saari

Dear Sir,

Regulation to restrict person to person solicitation to residential homes is wrong. Real Estate sales and helping people move is an important part of our American economy. We provide a needed service and people who use our service benefit immensely by achieving their goals.

RE: DOCKET #92-90
TELEPHONE CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT OF 1991

IT IS VERY IMPORTANT TO NOT RESTRICT REALTORS AND THEIR ASSISTANTS FROM COLD CALLING RESIDENTIAL HOMES. THIS IS HANDLED IN A VERY PROFESSIONAL MANNER. THIS WILL HAVE SUCH AN EFFECT ON MY BUSINESS THAT I WILL FIND MYSELF UNEMPLOYEED. THE USA HAS ENOUGH UNEMPLOYEED PEOPLE AS IT IS.

LET'S WORK TOGETHER TO KEEP REALTORS EMPLOYEED AND REALTOR'S ASSISTANTS!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

A VERY CONCERNED CITIZEN, WHO PAYS A LOT OF TAXES AND PROUD TO DO SO FOR MY COUNTRY IS SIGNING THIS LETTER!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Re: Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991.

To whom it may concern:

I am a licensed Realtor in Santa Rosa, California. I have recently become aware that a new regulation is in the drafting stage. This new regulation would restrict person-to-person solicitations to residential homes; and I find that to be very disturbing. The reason I find this to be so disturbing is that 95% of my business comes from person-to-person solicitations. I would hope that the intent of this new regulation would not be to put thousands of hard working individuals like myself out of work. Certainly this country has enough unemployment! I conservatively state that this single regulation could turn an already highly volatile Real Estate Industry upside down.

Clearly I am against any such regulation and will do all in my power to prevent such a regulation from passing!

Strongly opposed;
